between municipal court and District Court is probably limited in these matters, and the history of [REDACTED] previous excuses may not arise. However, where the question of previous excuse from service is raised, unfavorable consideration can be anticipated where excuses have been granted [REDACTED] - letter to Judge Bailey - denied).

I understand that [REDACTED] is a law school graduate though not a member of the bar. There is a strong policy of the courts to eliminate from jury duty individuals having legal background or training. I do not know Judge Barse's attitude on this matter, but it is not improbable that [REDACTED] may be excused because of his "disqualifying" background.

If this case is strong enough and you so wish, I shall attempt to intercede personally with Judge Barse.
